RECRUITING AND HIRING THE 350 TO 400 WORKERS NEEDED ONCE VICTORIA GOLD'S EAGLE GOLD PROJECT GOES INTO OPERATION

takes an experienced team and at the helm, a Human Resources Manager committed to employee health, safety and wellbeing.

Enter Eileen Olivier, hired to lead this team for Victoria in July.

As Human Resources Manager, Eileen brings over 30 years of experience. She is responsible for a full range of employee and labour relations, benefits administration and recruitment; ensuring staffing needs are provided efficiently and cost-effectively.

"I enjoy working in the mining industry, recruiting and hiring young people and watching them grow," says Eileen. "I have a great deal of respect for the people who work in the industry and the sacrifices they make working away from home to provide a good living for their families."

Prior to joining Victoria Gold, Eileen spent 16 years at Teckcominco's Polaris Mine in Nunavut. She has also held senior Human Resources positions in the mining industry across the country and around the world.

"Eileen is committed to building and maintaining a good working rapport with our workforce through respectful, direct and effective techniques," says John McConnell, President & CEO of Victoria Gold Corp. "She brings a progressive track record and proven leadership experience and we are pleased Eileen is on board as we advance the Eagle Gold Project to become Yukon's next operating gold mine."

"Yukon is so beautiful and Yukoners so warm and friendly," continues Eileen. "I look forward to making the territory my home as Victoria starts up the future Eagle Gold Mine and contributing to an industry that has provided me with so many benefits and opportunities throughout my career."

ABOUT VICTORIA GOLD & THE EAGLE GOLD MINE

The Eagle Gold Mine, currently under construction, is part of Victoria's 100 per cent-owned Dublin Gulch gold property located approximately 375 kilometres north of Whitehorse and 85 kilometres north, northeast of the Village of Mayo within the traditional territory of the First Nation of Na-Cho Nyak Dun. The property is accessible by road year-round and is within Yukon Energy's electrical grid.

The Eagle Gold Mine has received all major permits for construction and operations, completed the Yukon Environmental and Socio-economic Assessment Board (YESAB) process and mutually created and implements the Comprehensive Cooperation and Benefits Agreement with the First Nation of Na-Cho Nyak Dun. Once in operations, the mine will be a significant economic contributor to Yukon employing 350 to 400 people.
