

Team Work

VITGOLDCORP.COM

AS VICTORIA GOLD'S EAGLE GOLD PROJECT ADVANCES, the company's continual additions to its capacity and expertise are key to Project success and resulting opportunities and benefits for Yukoners and communities.

Enter Dave Rouleau; Victoria's newly announced VP of Operations and General Manager for the Project, which is on track to be Yukon's next gold mine.

As Vice President of Operations for Eagle Gold, Dave is responsible for the Project's overall direction and guidance as Victoria constructs its future mine. As General Manager, he manages and leads the day-to-day operations of the site and interacts with the site's managers, superintendents and personnel to ensure all aspects of operations are met and optimized to reflect and achieve Victoria's objectives.

"Mining is my passion first and foremost," says Rouleau. "Meeting new people and creating high-paying, challenging and rewarding jobs really excites me. Inspiring people to reach their true potential and seeing communities strengthen and prosper are the best parts of my job."

An avid outdoorsman, Dave already loves the territory, its people and its culture. "The Yukon is a true frontier and Yukoners are down-to-earth and some of the hardest working people in our country," continues Rouleau.

It is his 30 years-experience in the mining industry however where Dave, like Eagle, soars.

"Dave is a seasoned mine operator and an exceptional addition to Victoria's senior management team as we gear up for operations and our first gold pour next year." John McConnell, President & CEO Victoria Gold Corp.

Most recently, Dave was the VP Operations with Barkerville Gold Mines Ltd. and prior to that spent five years with Taseko Mines Limited as VP Operations, primarily responsible for the Gibraltar Mine in central BC. His background further includes 17 years with Teck Cominco in various operations and engineering roles at a number of their mine sites. David holds a BSc Mine Engineering degree from South Dakota School of Mines and a Mine Technology Diploma from the Haileybury School of Mines in Ontario.

Dave Rouleau, 2nd from L with Victoria's Board of Directors (L-R): Len Krol, Advisor; Sean Roosen, Director; Patrick Downey, Advisor; Jacques Perron, Director; Chris Hill, Director; John McConnell, Director, President & CEO; Sean Harvey, Director, Chairman ; Missing: Michael McLinnis, Director.

David Rouleau, VP Operations and General Manager

ABOUT VICTORIA GOLD AND THE EAGLE GOLD PROJECT

The Eagle Gold Project, currently under construction, and future gold mine is part of Victoria's 100 per cent-owned Dublin Gulch gold property located approximately 375 kilometres north of Whitehorse and 85 kilometres north, northeast of the Village of Mayo within the traditional territory of the First Nation of Na-Cho Nyak Dun. The property is accessible by road year-round and is within Yukon Energy's electrical grid.

The Eagle Gold Project has received all major permits for construction and operations, completed the Yukon Environmental and Socio-economic Assessment Board (YESAB) process and mutually created and implements the Comprehensive Cooperation and Benefits Agreement with the First Nation of Na-Cho Nyak Dun.