

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT & CEO

NATIONAL INDIGENOUS PEOPLES DAY

ON BEHALF OF THE ENTIRE VICTORIA GOLD TEAM, I extend my best wishes to all Yukoners as we come together to reflect upon and celebrate National Indigenous Peoples Day on Monday, June 21.

This very important day provides us all with an opportunity to recognize the rich histories, cultures, voices and traditional knowledge of Yukon First Nations here in the territory and of Indigenous peoples from coast to coast to coast.

We are very proud of our company's long-standing partnership with the First Nation of Na-Cho Nyak Dun and its citizens, within whose traditional territory the Eagle Gold Mine is located and operates. We look forward to the ongoing dialogue this partnership brings and to continued meaningful and respectful working relationships throughout, and beyond, the life of the mine.

My family and I will be honouring National Indigenous Peoples Day and the longest day of the year from home this year and encourage everyone to enjoy exploring Indigenous culture, experiences, diversity and achievements in a safe, physically-distanced manner.

Sincerely,

John McConnell
President & CEO
Victoria Gold Corp
